

City of Polk City
Special Work Session
November 24, 2014

The City Council for the City of Polk City met in special session on November 24, 2014, at City Hall in Polk City, Iowa. Present were Robert Mordini, David Dvorak, Jeff Walters, Dan Lane and Ron Anderson. Also present were Administrator Gary Mahannah and Planning and Zoning members James Hill, Dennis Dietz and Doug Sires. Mayor Jason Morse called the meeting to order at 4:30 p.m.

The purpose of the special work session was to interview firms for the City's Comprehensive Plan. The firms interviewed were JEO Engineering, MSA Professional Services and Snyder and Associates. The council allowed each firm a fifteen minute presentation and fifteen minutes for questions and answers.

Following the interviews, the Council discussed selecting a firm with the Planning and Zoning Commission members that were present.

The meeting adjourned at 6:30 p.m.

Jason Morse, Mayor
